

Networking through Community Service:

Giving Back, Expanding your Skills and Gaining Experience

SOAR 55 volunteers John DiMiceli, Dick Winters and Linda Rosen are members of the SOAR 55 Nonprofit Management Consulting Group

A SOAR 55 Workshop for People 55+

Thursday, April 15
Wayland Free Public Library
5 Concord Road
Raytheon Room

7:30 pm

Learn how Community Service and Volunteerism can connect you with others, help forge a new career path, fill gaps in your resume and make a difference

Assignments available include:

- Training to provide management consulting to local nonprofits
- Fundraising and grant writing for an "Aging in Place" program
- Marketing for a multi-service child/family agency
- Re-designing a medical facility's website
- And much more

Make connections

Meet interesting people

Do something you love

Work around your schedule

Use your talents

Learn new skills

Make a Difference

SOAR 55, Service Opportunities after Reaching 55, is a program of Newton Community Service Center and part of a national network of volunteer agencies that connects individuals over age 55 with volunteer opportunities in Newton, Natick, Framingham, Wellesley, Weston, Wayland and Ashland.

To Register

Please call (617) 244-1404 ext. 228 or email kalbert@NCSCweb.org www.soar-ma.org

